What Direction is Your Compass Pointed?

October 2012

Thirty-seven years ago my father was reading the book Dear & Glorious Physician, a novel dedicated to the life of Saint Luke the Evangelist & Apostle – it only seemed natural that when I was born, I was named Luke!

Saint Luke, as all saints are, is an amazing example of one who dedicated his life to God. The multiple talents that our Lord gifted to Saint Luke were cultivated, and then offered back to Him through applications that befitted the Gospel message: an educated man, who used his intellectual ability to write and speak the Gospel, an artist, who wrote the first icons, and a physician who worked as an instrument of divine healing. He was truly an icon of Christian pilgrimage and stewardship!

As an educated man, trained professionally as a doctor and an artist, Saint Luke could have chosen multiple life-paths. He chose the path that glorified God.

The life path that glorifies God can take many different forms but will always point in the same direction. Are you a doctor? Are you an artist? Are you a writer? Whatever talents God has gifted to your life, and to what extent that you have chosen to develop them, will construct the appearance of your life-path, but the direction that it is pointed will dictate whether or not it glorifies God.

Life-paths can point in numerous directions: the mirror, the bank, the wrong side of the track, pure professionalism, consumerism, relativism, etc. What then differentiates a life that is pointed in a direction that glorifies our Father in Heaven?

When we have consciously recognized the source of all that we have as God, we automatically assume a responsibility to do something with those gifts. If we choose to develop those gifts (our life, together with the tangible and intangible components) for application, and our application is intended to be in line with the Gospel message, then we align the compass of our life-path toward God and begin to progress in the path of the saints.

Even when we attempt to responsibly align the compass of our life in the right direction, it may at times move off track. Through the blessings of an active life in Christ's Church, the spiritual maintenance of direction will consistently be shepherded back to the correct direction. God does not ask that we be perfect, but He does expect that we strive to be!

This October, a month where so many universally known saints are commemorated, let us draw strength from the life-path and saintly example of Saint Luke the Apostle & Evangelist, who is commemorated on October 18th. We will celebrate the Divine Liturgy in the evening of October 17th at 6 pm so that those who work during the weekday may have the opportunity to attend.

As a disciple of the Word of God, with Paul you illuminated all the earth and dispelled the gloom in writing Christ's divine Gospel.

Religious Education Notes from Fr. Luke

Youth Education

Our youth education program has begun, and we joyfully serve our youth in the experience of educating and inviting them to a committed Orthodox Christian life. Please stay strong in your commitment as families to maintain your children consistently in the program, as consistency will serve to solidify the foundation of God in our young people's lives. Thank you again to our director and dedicated staff of teachers. If you are interested in teaching in the youth religious education program, please contact the church office to be put in touch with Kathy Marshall about opportunities as a substitute teacher.

Adult Education

Did you know that we learn from the moment of our conception until the moment of our death? With what substance will you fill your 'learning life?' Nativity Bible Study continues Tuesday mornings at 10 am, and continuing education continues each Wednesday evening at 6 pm during Orthodoxy 101.

We look forward to the further development of the Nativity Adult Education Experience! Your insight is needed.

Would you commit to:

- Hosting an in-house Bible Study or Class?
- An early morning Bible Study or Class? On-site or off-site?
- Locational Bible Study in Sonoma County?

Please contact the church office with your input so that together we may responsibly extend the substance of Christ to fill your 'learning

Philoptochos

Coffee Hour

A new coffee hour schedule is now posted on the bulletin board in the hall entrance. So far we have one sign up for September 30. Hosting a fellowship hour is the perfect way to celebrate birthdays, name days, special milestones in the life of a family member, memorials and much more. Coffee, juice and table setting will all be done for you. All you need to do is bring in some goodies to share, plate them on the table and have fun greeting your fellow parishioners as they thankfully help themselves to your food items. If you are unable to host a coffee hour, Philoptochos is always appreciative of any donations you can drop by the kitchen.

Membership

We would like to welcome the newest member of Philoptochos, Christina Thomatos.

Holy Cross Luncheon

On October 7, we will have our yearly light luncheon to benefit the students of Holy Cross/Hellenic College. Please see Nancy Slenkin during coffee hour if you would like to sign up to bring something.

October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month

At the 2012 Clergy-Laity Conference in Phoenix, Arizona a Philoptochos resolution was passed proclaiming October as "Breast Cancer Awareness Month." Nearly one out of eight women in the U.S. will be diagnosed with breast cancer in their lifetime. If you have been neglecting to schedule your mammogram, please promise yourself that October will be the month you make the appointment. If you are a mother, grandmother, daughter, aunt, sister or a friend, you owe it to yourself and your loved ones to do the best you can to take care of yourself so they will have you in their lives for as long as possible. Life is already short; let's not neglect our health so it becomes shorter.

Outings and Special Events

Our next outing will be on October 18 to the Conservatory of Flowers in San Francisco to attend the Plantosaurus Rex Prehistoric Plant Exhibit. On exhibition is a prehistoric paradise of plants from the time of the dinosaurs dating back from 250-65 million years ago. After the exhibit we will go out for lunch to a nearby café. The exhibit opens at 10 am so we will probably leave Marin around 9:30 am. If you would like to join us, please contact Debbie Kokalis, 415-367-5252.

Welcome Back Picnic

The Barbeque Picnic, held on the outdoor patio, was a joyful opportunity for our church family to enjoy an afternoon together to celebrate the "kick-off" of the 2012-13 Youth Education Programs. The picnic was a chance to meet, greet, and visit with new and returning families in our parish. The sisters from Holy Assumption Monastery provided an outdoor story-time experience as children gathered in a circle to listen to Mother Melania and Sister Mary. Of course, there was the "Jumpy House" that was enjoyed by the many children who attended. Special thanks to Phil Marshall for his pick up, set-up, and preparation of the food for the barbeque; to Debbie Kokalis and Carol Economy for their remarkable guidance and support in the preparation of the food on Sunday morning; and to Steve and Vicki Mavromihalis for their contribution of all of the drinks for Sunday's event. Thank you also to Spiros Stratigos and Steve Rouman for manning the barbeques, to Father Luke for picking up the barbeques, to Effie Fourakis and Matina Seremetis for their assistance in set-up, and to Karen Walters, Eirini Karatzaferi and Bonnie Alexander for organizing the registration of students for Sunday mornings and Greek School.

Youth Education Sundays

This year, Sunday morning education takes place each Sunday. Students will attend classes after receiving communion with their families. Classes will convene for one hour. Father Luke has selected a specific Sunday each month when students will not attend classes, but will remain in Liturgy with their families for their educational lessons. Please refer to the posted schedule located on the wall by the primary grade classrooms for the complete schedule for the year.

Bazaar at St. Nicholas

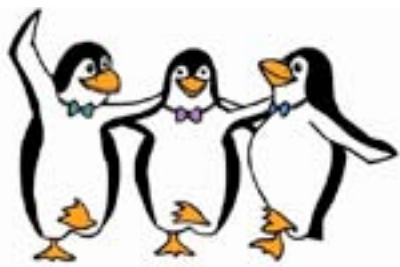

St. Nicholas Church in San Anselmo will host their Annual Bazaar on Saturday, October 6, from 10:30 am - 3:00 pm. The day will feature traditional Slavic foods, live music, handmade crafts, a silent auction and a rummage sale. The church choir will perform at 1:00 pm. St. Nicholas Church is located at 102 Ross Avenue in San Anselmo. The phone number is 415-454-0982, and their web address is stnicholasmarin.org.

St. Nectarios Pilgrimage

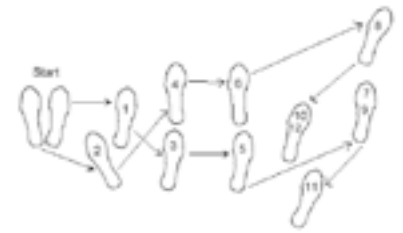

JT Travel, owned by Fr. James Adams, is conducting a pilgrimage by bus to St. Nectarios Church in Covina November 8-10. The cost is $250.00 per person (double occupancy) or $375 (single occupancy) and includes transportation and two nights at the Radisson Hotel including full breakfast. Contact Fr. James for more information at 415-382-1812.

Another Cleaning!

This time the cleaning project is the downstairs storage room off the library. There is so much "stuff" in there, and it's unclear which ministry of the church this stuff belong to. We are asking those of you who have items stored in that closet to go down and pick out the things you wish to save and remove them from the closet into another safe storage space, or take them home for the time being. If you could dispose of your other unwanted items, that would be great! On November 1st, there will be a committee that will be deciding what to do with the remaining items, but more than likely they will be disposed of. So please make sure you check the closet for anything that may belong to you personally, or to your particular church ministry. Father is working on some plans for this area and it must be cleaned out. He is also working on an alternate storage area for the items that must remain in church storage.

GREEK DANCE FAQs

Q: Why Greek dance?

A: Greek dancing is great exercise! Since most dances are done in a line, dancers of all different ages, abilities and experience learn to work together. And when they master a dance, they know they did it as a team.

Q: Do you have to be Greek to Greek dance?

A: Not at all! A desire to learn and a commitment to rehearse is all that's needed.

Q: I've never danced before, what if I can't get it?

A: That's why we rehearse every week and review, review, review.

Q: What's so great about performing anyway?

A: Performing on stage in costume swells self-confidence and it's easy because you're in a group and everyone relies on each other.

Q: I've heard it's really expensive to be in the dance group.

A: Tuition is $100/year for one dancer in a family and $150 if there are more dancers in the family.

Q: What about costumes?

A: The group provides costumes for all the dancers for $50 per year rental fee.

Q: Do I have to attend the Folk Dance Festival?

A: No, it's not a requirement to attend. Many dancers practice all year and choose to perform locally.

Q: What is that Folk Dance Festival all about anyway?

A: FDF is a ministry of our Metropolis. It's held every February at a different location. It's a competition, but mostly it's an opportunity for faith, fellowship, family, friends and fun.

Q: What about fundraising?

A: Everyone's help is needed at the Gyros booth at the Marin County Fair in July.

Q: How do I sign up?

A: Check the schedule below and come to your first rehearsal!

2012 Stewardship Campaign

2012 Stewardship Update September 24, 2012

Number of Commitments Received	249
Total Amount Committed	$183,908
2011 Stewardship Budget	$225,000

At the completion of the year's third quarter, we are encouraged to look forward to responsibly plan for the coming year, and look backward at the responsibility we have exhibited to date in the current year. There is no more responsible experience than to consciously choose to be aligned with God.

We are all encouraged to look backward and then forward to the conscious commitment that we have made to our Christian life!

As a tangible manifestation of our committed journey, we are all given the opportunity to become responsible financial stewards of our local parish – the Nativity of Christ Greek Orthodox Church. Please begin the process of considering your 2013 Stewardship Pledge to Nativity and reconsider what you have offered in 2012. It is not too late to become a 2012 Steward (simply contact the church office for details), and it is not too early to begin prayerfully considering your offering in 2013.

*Great Martyr Demetrios,
The Myrrh-flowing and Wonderworking Saint*

October 26
